Welcome

Principal's Report: Principal Richard Dixon

- Kindergarten Registration
 - Going well, looks like there will be plenty of incoming kindergarteners.
 - Don't have any additional information on when in-person learning might resume

President's Report: Erin Brown

- Campus Highlights-BLM (Mike Downey)
 - Had a great conversation with Mai Xi (District representative) and was introduced to Nicki Harrelson.
 - Will discuss further what we're interested in at the closed Board meeting
 - Principal Dixon is engaged with Mai Xi regarding training for staff
 - PTG will coordinate with Principal Dixon on any decisions and training requested by the District.
- PTG Elections
 - Coming up soon. Will spread the word via all regular channels.
 - Nominations should be in around March. Vote in April/May. Board members confirmed by PTG Board at May Board meeting.
- Volunteer Opportunities
 - Garden Tour
 - Next (and first) meeting on February 11. Anyone is invited.
 - PTG and Principal Dixon feel it important to do something for Garden Tour, but will be following all precautions and guidelines.
 - Gift Wrap – Still need someone to take over as liaison. E-mail Erin if interested. Fairly low workload.

Fundraisers and Campus Updates: Erin Brown

- Garden Tour (see above)
- March 1st Wednesday – March 3, Round Table Pizza
- Box Tops – keep scanning them in!

- Kit to work with Ms. Kane to produce a write-up to share in next PTG newsletter.
- Farm Fresh To You
 - We've been notified that 8-10 new people have enrolled. It's a nice fundraiser that doesn't take much effort.
- Amazon Smile

Art Update: Ms. Jane

- Have had 1-2 classes with each class that has been interested in having a set aside art time.
- Still planning for a clay project for all students. Looking to order model magic and distribute it on the next distribution day.
- Interested in providing an update to parents via Principal Dixon's weekly email.
- Reaching out to 4th grade to schedule virtual Underground Tours. May include 5th grade as well.
